

Lord of the Flies

ANTICIPATION GUIDE

Decide whether you agree or disagree to the following statements. In a rather thorough response justify why you either agree or disagree the the prompts. Cite support, be it hypothetical or not, to logically convince your reader that your stance is valid. Your written justification should be no less than 6 sentences.

- 1) All human beings are born with “evil” in them; evilness is part of human nature.
- 2) Society has more influence upon an individual’s actions than that individual’s free will.
- 3) Overall, people have a hard time finding any meaning to life.
- 4) In order for human beings to function, they need to be a part of civilization.
- 5) Innocence is like a baby tooth--it is meant to be lost in the natural cycle of one’s life.
- 6) When isolated, people lose part of their identity.
- 7) It is human nature to fear the unknown.
- 8) It is human nature to care more about ourselves than we do about our surroundings.
- 9) Society falls because human beings are flawed. In other words, people do bad things because they are born with “badness.”
